

Name: _____

BUILDING CHARACTERS

When an author begins creating a character they have to think of all the details about that character both internal and external. Internal are all the things the character thinks and feels. External are the things the character does and says.

Here's my character "Abigail" from The Blue Witch:

ABIGAIL

INTERNAL

Wants to be a good witch

Afraid she's going to fail

Lonely without friends

Doesn't like to be different

EXTERNAL

Has strange blue witchfire

Braids her hair in pigtails

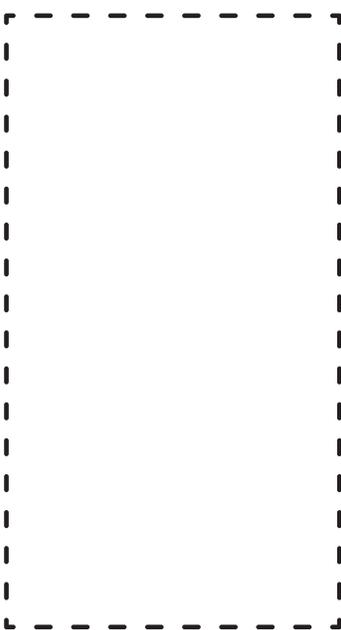

Lives in an attic room

Breaks the rules alot

Now your turn! Think of some good details to fill in the blanks to make a super interesting character. Give them a name and draw a picture in the box.

INTERNAL

EXTERNAL

Empty rounded rectangle for internal detail.

Empty rounded rectangle for external detail.

Empty rounded rectangle for internal detail.

Empty rounded rectangle for external detail.

Empty rounded rectangle for internal detail.

Empty rounded rectangle for external detail.

Empty rounded rectangle for internal detail.

Empty rounded rectangle for external detail.