SO YOU WANT TO BE AN AUTHOR

Start your journey to becoming an author by following along with the videos and creating your own story. In Part Two Alane discusses Title, Setting and Genre. Think about the story you want to write and begin filling in the blanks. Use additional paper as needed. Remember: You can always change them later!

Title

Genre

Setting

Where does your story take place?

What kind of people live there? What sort of society is it?

Describe the time of year, weather, and other natural elements.

Describe the time in history--modern, futuristic, medieval etc

Write a brief statement about what makes the setting of your story unique.
