

NAME: _____

WHAT COMES FIRST?

Before an author begins writing the story, there are several things they need to think about. Fill in the blanks with the things you think are most important and explain why.

- The first thing an author should think about is...

Three horizontal lines for writing the answer to the first question.

- The second thing an author should think about is...

Three horizontal lines for writing the answer to the second question.

- The third thing an author should think about is...

Three horizontal lines for writing the answer to the third question.

