

WHAT COMES FIRST?

NAME:

TEACHER:

Before an author begins writing the story, there are several things they need to think about and decide upon. Fill in the blanks with the things you think are most important and explain your answers.

- The first thing an author should think about is...

- The second thing an author should think about is...

- The third thing an author should think about is...

- The hardest thing an author has to decide on is....
