

Name _____

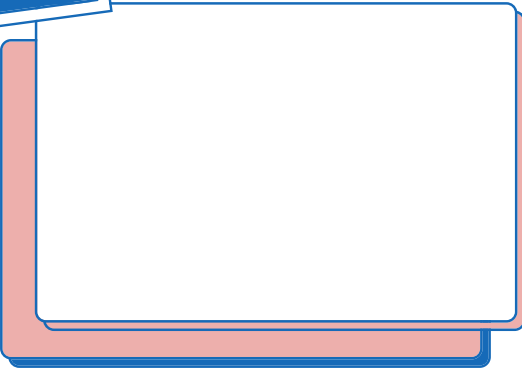

Date _____

Teacher _____

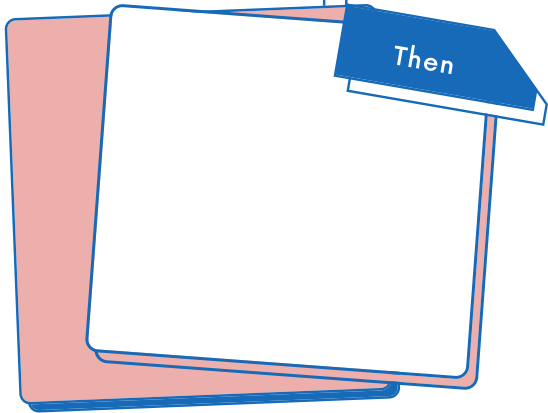

THE PROBLEM

We've arrived at one of the most important steps in writing your story. Creating a problem that will carry the story and give your character's a reason to take action is one of the most important steps in writing. Use this worksheet to brainstorm your Big Problem. Thinking about consequences is a good way to frame it. If X BAD THING happens THEN....

If

Then

Setting

Describe the problem in a few sentences.

Do you know the solution? Make sure it's not too easy to solve.

What steps does he/she have to take to solve the problem?

What does the antagonist want more than anything? How far will they go to get it?
