Name: _____ Date: _____

Empathy In Action

When you show empathy toward another person, you are showing that person how brave they are to share things about themself. When you listen, you should listen with kind ears and an open mind. Look at this moment from Smudge when the authors laugh after learning Smudge wrote a story:

What is Smudge trying to share about themself in this scene? How could the authors have responded more kindly?