

Name: _____

Date: _____

EXPOSITION MASH UP

In Smudge's journal, you learned about a story's exposition. Do you remember what each of these words mean?

The WHO in the exposition tells the reader: _____

The WHAT in the exposition tells the reader: _____

The WHY in the exposition tells the reader: _____

What happens if there is too much detail in the exposition?

What happens if there is not enough detail in the exposition?

For each exposition sentence below, can you fill in what is missing and add new details?

Max went to the museum

What is missing? Write the sentence with the missing piece added in:

Builds a new robot to do math homework for him.

What is missing? Write the sentence with the missing piece added in:

Smudge to find their missing pages of the World Book.

What is missing? Write the sentence with the missing piece added in:

Tank the Turtle packs a backpack.

What is missing? Write the sentence with the missing piece added in:
