

Name: _____

Date: _____

CHOICES FOR SMUDGE

Read the story prompt and then complete the sentences with details from the story prompt or you own imagination:

"This is it... a brand-new year," Smudge shouted, feeling a bit of magic in the air. Smudge skipped along, wondering what today would bring. Just then, Smudge pushed through a hedge and saw three paths appear. One path glowed faintly as it led into a quiet forest, where old footprints shimmered like they might move on their own. Another path stretched across a shiny lake, its surface twinkling as if something magical slept beneath. The third path climbed a steep, sunny hill, where a small box glowed at the top. Smudge shivered with excitement and tried to decide which path to take...

If Smudge chooses that path into the forest, then _____

If Smudge does not go through the hedges, then _____

If Smudge chooses to explore that shiny lake, then _____

If Smudge opens the box at the top of the sunny hill, then _____

If Smudge had stayed at home today, then _____

Name:

Date:

CHOICES FOR SMUDGE

Write a new story about Smudge's adventure after Smudge chooses a path:

A cartoon character with dark blue hair and a white face, wearing a yellow shirt, holding a pencil and a piece of paper, standing next to a large sheet of lined paper.