Name: _____ Date: _____

SENSING A STORY

Choose one of these problems to be the focus of your story.

The bees were missing from the meadow.	The river was stopped and not flowing.	The field was only full of dirt instead of grass.	The trash was littered all over the forest.

Write a story from Smudge's perspective that includes details for all of the else's to help the reader better understand this problem. Include what Smudge sees, hears, tastes, smells, and touches in your story.

Continue your story from Smudge's perspective, but now focus on how Smudge solves this problem. Try to include details of Smudge's solution that use all 5 senses.