BASKET OF STORIES

Choose one of the story prompts below and write a new story for Fleck or Smudge.

“Achoo!” Fleck jumped out of the chair at the sound of a very loud sneeze. Outside the window, Fleck saw a yellow rabbit hop quickly out of a sight, leaving a woven basket behind. When Fleck picked up the basket it was full of carrots. Fleck dumped out the carrots, but more and more things kept falling out. First it was vegetables, and then fruit. Before long, a huge pile stood as tall as Fleck! The basket had no bottom, just a glowing hole at the bottom. Fleck reached inside and pulled out...

“What a great day to pick some flowers,” Smudge said to Iggy. They walked into the garden, feeling the sunshine on their skin. Flowers of all colors were growing there, and the friends started to pick a beautiful bunch. When their hands were full, Smudge grabbed a basket. When Smudge dropped the flowers in, and they disappeared! “Did you see that?” Smudge shouted. When Iggy reached into the basket, he disappeared through the bottom! Smudge had to help Iggy, so Smudge reached towards the bottom of the basket...

Before you write a new story, draw a picture to illustrate the important details of the prompt you chose.
