GENRE, SETTING, TITLE

Directions: Read each section carefully to plan your story. Complete all four sections to explain your genre, setting, title, and how they work together.

GENRE: Identify your chosen genre and explain why this genre is the best fit for the story you want to tell.

---

---

---

---

SETTING: Describe the world of your story, including both physical location and time period. If you're creating a fantasy or sci-fi world, detail the world-building elements.

---

---

---

---

TITLE: Generate two title options and analyze how each reflects different aspects of your story (theme, character, conflict, setting, genre). Select your strongest option and circle the one you like most.

Title 1: _____

Title 2 : _____

HOW THEY WORK TOGETHER: Write a paragraph explaining how your title, genre, and setting work together to create a cohesive story. Address how these elements will influence plot development, character choices, and reader expectations.
