

Name: _____

Date: _____

SMUDGE'S STORY SORT

Smudge wrote a great new story, but then the sentences fell off of the page. Help Smudge put a number in each pumpkin to put the story back in order. Sentence number 1 is first and number 10 is last.

After chasing leaves, Smudge went to the pumpkin patch.

Smudge put on a jacket, because the fall morning was crisp.

Next to the fire, Smudge read a spooky story just before bed time.

Iggy put a candle inside the pumpkin so it would glow at night.

Smudge ran around and tried to catch the leaves as they fluttered to the ground.

After some apple cider, Smudge was ready to start the day!

Smudge and Iggy carved the pumpkin into a grinning jack-o-lantern.

Gold, red, and orange leaves were falling from the trees like autumn confetti.

Smudge roasted pumpkin seeds for a salty snack to end the perfect fall day.

Smudge picked a pumpkin so big, Iggy had to help Smudge roll it home.