Name: _____

VOCABULARY (Chapter 34 - Ending)

Word	Definition	Related Words wailed	cried out loudly in grief, pain, or distress; made a long, high-pitched sound of sorrow	sob, weep, howl oblivion	the state of being unconscious or unaware; complete forgetfulness or unawareness	unconsciousness, unaware pungent	the state of being unconscious or unaware; complete forgetfulness or unawareness	zesty, flavored, strong reckless	acting without thinking about consequences; careless and dangerous in behavior	careless, thoughtless shedding	removing or casting off; getting rid of something that covers or conceals	peeling, molting interfere	to involve oneself in someone else's business; to get in the way or disrupt	intervene, prevent, hinder pleaded	asked for something earnestly or desperately; begged with emotion	beg, request limp	lacking firmness or strength; hanging loosely without energy or life	weak, lifeless resume	begin to do something again after a pause or interruption	begin again, continue, proceed mindful	being conscious and aware; paying careful attention to something	attentive, aware