EXTENSION ACTIVITIES CHOICE BOARD

Directions: Choose ONE of the following activities to complete. Each activity lets you explore the story in a creative way.

Option 1: Dark Magic Awareness Campaign

Create a public service announcement warning about the dangers of dark magic. Include an eye-catching poster design, a catchy slogan, facts about dark magic's effects (based on the book), testimonials from characters who've experienced it, warning signs that someone is being drawn to dark magic, and resources for help (who to talk to at the academy).

Option 2: Abigail's Memory Book

Create a memory book/scrapbook from Abigail's perspective covering the entire novel. Include entries for at least 10 major events, "photos" (drawings/descriptions) of important people, mementos (ticket stubs, pressed jooberries, etc.), journal entries showing her thoughts, friendship pages for Hugo and Calla, and family pages for her mother, father, and Jasper.

Option 3: The Blue Witch Sequel – Chapter 1

Write Chapter 1 of the sequel. Include an opening hook that draws readers in, a continuation from where the book ended, Abigail's voice matching the original, at least one conflict or problem, setting descriptions, dialogue that sounds authentic, and a cliffhanger or transition to Chapter 2.

Option 4: Investigative Report:

Melistra's Crimes

Create an investigative report exposing Melistra's crimes and deceptions. Include a list of all her crimes with evidence, a timeline of her deceptions, witnesses and testimony, her possible motivations, why she's gotten away with it for so long, what should happen to her, how this affects Abigail, and connections to the Rubicus Prophecy.

Option 5: Documentary: The Truth

About Lissandra's Death

Create a documentary-style presentation revealing the truth about Lissandra's death and Melistra's betrayal. Include a timeline of events, an "interview" with Baba Nana, evidence connecting Melistra to the viken, the impact on Abigail's life, and what justice might look like.

Option 6: Final Reflection Essay

Write a one-page reflection addressing: What is the most important lesson Abigail learns? How do you feel about the ending—is it satisfying? If you could ask the author one question about what happens next, what would it be? Who is your favorite character, and how did they grow or change? What is the overall message or theme of The Blue Witch?
