READING EXERCISE: HURT FEELINGS

Have you ever overheard someone talking about you when they didn't know you were listening? Hugo overhears something mean Abigail says to Endera.

"He's not my friend at all, just an annoying Balfin boy who wants to steal my magic."

How would you feel if you were Hugo?

Why do you think Abigail said it?

If you were Hugo, would you still try to help her?

How would you deal with a friend who said something mean?
